Team Around the Child Meeting Evaluation and Feedback

Dear Parent,

This year as part of my ongoing professional development I am attending MMU to study for the SENCo leadership qualification. As part of this course I will be evaluating my current practice and implementing initiatives to develop the SEND provision in school. One of the areas I am reviewing is how we have been using team around the child meetings to plan and evaluate provision for pupils with additional needs and if this process is meeting the needs of pupils, families and professionals. I would appreciate it if you would give me some professional feedback by completing the following questionnaire.

Using a scale of 1-5 with 1 being low (unsatisfactory) and 5 being high (excellent) and thinking about the TAC meetings that you attended at Cheetwood how would you rate it as a professional meeting

1 2 3 4 5√√

Additional Comment:

Very well organised the team agreed to meet again in January. Looking forward to achieving positive results for S together.

How would you rate my role as lead/facilitator?

1 2 3 4 5√√

Additional Comment:

Very well anchored and facilitated

Always ensures that any thoughts or fears are listened to and explains agency roles and who is involved helping my child

In your opinion was the meeting child centred?

Yes√√√ No

If yes how is this achieved and if no can you give reasons and suggest how this could be improved

I liked the use of the whiteboard. This process can be further improved by letting professionals make their reports after few observations of the child (not just one)

B brought into the meeting for part of it and given the chance to express himself

Yes by discussing the child their health and progress his difficulties and areas that need improving

In your opinion were your parent views taken into consideration during the meetings?

Yes ✓✓✓ No

If yes how is this achieved and if no can you give reasons and suggest how this could be improved

Both parents were allowed to express their opinion. Periodic TAC meetings, short term targets and reflections on the child's progress against targets could further improve engagement

Using questionnaires as well as asking me questions and recognising my views during the meeting. Offering me advice as an action afterwards.

Yes by taking all the parents points and how the child can make more progress

Did you feel involved in the planning and review process?

Yes ✓✓✓NO

If yes how is this achieved and if no can you give reasons and suggest how this could be improved

Professional reports can be shared with parents in advance to help them discuss the findings beforehand and focus on the conversation during the meeting

I am always asked my parent views and I am always informed about what agencies will be involved and what the actions will be after the meeting

Yes by listening to parents opinion and making it part of the plan and getting an update of the reviews and plans

Have you any suggestions for how the meeting could have been improved?

A bit more time

Not at present happy with how the meetings are carried out

What did you consider to be the strength of the meeting?

Collective views, findings and ideas of a number of professionals each working to a common target of helping the child achieve development targets

Having all of the agency professionals present SENCO leading the meeting as she can help parents to express views. Parent given the opportunity to speak and also the child being asked for their views

Thinking about my role as Special Needs Leader and the work that I do with you as parents what in your opinion is working well?

The frequent exchange of observations and meetings/feedback is helping us as parents do our own bit with P at home. We also appreciate the effort being put in to reach out to other professionals.

Having regular meetings and being kept up to date with my child's progress behaviour and needs. Being given advice and having the SENCO put me in touch with organisations

Keeping in touch with parents and updating them with any new information

Thinking about my role as SENCo have you any suggestions for how I could improve the way in which we work together in future?

Not at the moment as I feel I am updated often and thoroughly and I feel happy with how we work together

Your own observations of P would be precious feedback for us – maybe you could share these by email

Review the process of the plan to make sure targets met (this evaluation was completed in the meeting)

Any other Comments:

No just to thank you for your efforts so far

Miss Batkin is always very friendly, informative and helpful and listens to any fear myself or B may have

In your opinion what does the school do well?

If a child is falling back in learning activities, then the staff organise help for the child as soon as possible
 They are getting involved 100% in the education and good development of the kids (especially the SEN kids)
 To make her more confident in herself. The school most of the time congratulates her (she loves that)
 Conducts support at a fast pace when asked and provides opportunity for me to communicate with them
 Support my child well and welcoming and helpful towards me

In your opinion are there any areas that school could improve the provision for pupils with special educational needs?

Any other comments:

I know that the school has helped my child much with the English language because English is the second language for her. It has also helped her to have confidence

As a result of the feedback from parents and pupils the child centred format was adopted for all SEN reviews.
