Friday 1st March 2024

Important information:

* World book day is on Thursday 7th March and this year our theme will be Superheroes! Fictional characters or everyday 'superheroes' in our lives. Please see the letter sent out last week for more information.

* Book swap - in order to promote reading, children can take part in a book swap, children bring a book into school which they have completed reading and swap it for another book they'd like to add to their collection. Books need to be brought in by Wednesday 6th March.

* International Women's Day is on Friday 8th March. On this day we will be celebrating the inspirational women in our lives by inviting them into school for a special event. The event will start at 9am and last around 1 hour. Invites were sent home earlier in the week.

* Parent meetings next week are: Monday - Nursery & Reception. Tuesday - Year 4 & 6. Wednesday - Year 5.

* See page 3 of the newsletter for an exciting opportunity for any budding bakers.

End of the week:

* On Thursday, Miss Jamil led a parents meeting for Year 6 parents about the end of Key Stage Two SATs assessments. This meeting was very well attended and we thank parents for their time.

* Thank you to all the parents who have attended their child/ren's parent meetings. If you were unable to attend your meeting please do speak with the class teacher to rearrange.

Cheetwood's Article of the Week!

Article 17 - access to information.

Children and young people should be able to access information, particularly from the media. They should be able to get information from many places— from their country and beyond.

This article linked wonderfully to our computing assembly on Monday. Please discuss this article and it's importance with your child.

Words of the week

eavesdrop

When you listen secretly to what people are saying.

occasion

When an important thing happens.
